Doniphan night two battles on his march, the battle of Brazito and the battle of Sacramento. Capt. Upton B Winsor was in both battles. In latter fight he was one of the celebrated 250 cavalrymen, commanded by Capt. John W. Reid, who charged the redoubts the enemy, and drove them panic stricken in the irection of Chihuahua. He reached his home in Lexington in the latter part of June, 1847. In the fall of that year he entered a flourishing academy, then conducted at Chapel Hill, Latayette county. Though the academy is no longer in existence, its building having been burned foring the war, it sent forth from its walls a large number of men who have made their mark in the world. Among them may be mentioned Rev. C. A. Davis, Rev. W. W. Suddath, Dr. C. L. Ewing and others. He remained at Chapel Hill until the spring of 1849. He started to California in May of that year, returning i 1851. He made the second trip to California in 1854. In 1855 he was elected from Yuba county to the state legislature of California, and served to himself and with advantage to his constituents. In the fall of 1856 he returned to Mirsouri, and shortly thereafter engaged in merchandleing in Dewitt, Carroll county. ## THE GRAND CLIMAX REACHED AT LAST

When patience ceases to be a virtue, and when necessity becomes a law, the public must be aroused from its lethargy and spirit of indifference, and made to quiver once again with the excitement of terrible bargains in

Staple and Fancy Dry Goods,

CARPETS, BOOTS AND SHOES.

The question need not be asked, and were it not for form's sake the name need not be given, of "who is going to make this excitement," as every man, woman and child in the county of Lafayette knows there is ONLY ONE HOUSE having the vim, the heart and soul to sacrifice their prop-

Who acknowledge, however, that anticipating an early fall trade, they bought unusually large. Their expectations, with those of every other merchant in Lexington, have not been realized in consequence of the unusually long continuance of summer weather, and, rather than take the risk of catching up with the already lost trade in the balance of the season, they have made up their minds that if Low Prices will do it, in Four Weeks from this date not one of the $25-000 worth of bran new Dry Goods, &c., now on their shelves will be left to tell the tale. Necessity does for the poor what she never does for the rich and compensates for many of the privations incident
